

Conceived in Rome and born in the streets of cosmopolitan New York, Coreterno is the lifestyle brand driven by the visionary creative director Michelangelo Brancato and stylist Francilla Ronchi.

Coreterno which translated from Italian means “eternal heart”, draws inspiration from a wonderfully mysterious world of rebellious poets and engravers long gone and forgotten. Every creation blends motivational quotes with graphic images that evoke powerful emotions declined on candles and perfumes.

Coreterno collections feature representation of archetypal Rock and Pop symbols, nineteenth-century portraits and illustrations, ancient books of science and art and antique engravings, all reinterpreted in a contemporary fashion twist resulting in modern vintage collectibles.

Find inspiration with a Visionary Pillar candle, relax with one of Aphrodite Glass Jar candles and wander in the mesmerizing world of Eau de Parfum: you will galvanize yourself while exploring all the mystical paths of Coreterno. Through Coreterno collections, language becomes the medium of expression in people’s constant quest for happiness and the words and symbols depicted on each craft, open the doors to a magical and powerful universe.

PUNK MOTEL

Bright, delicate but at the same time of character, enveloping. The light of bergamot and white rose petals are “dirty” with salicylates that add a slightly salty appearance without marine scents, but like the wind that comes from the sea and crosses the desert. The bottom is extremely enveloping, musks and vanilla round off the fragrance, linked together by the character of ambrette to create an accord that does not go unnoticed.
