

mid/night 00.00

Founded in 2019 by Nina Urgell and Mare Ciudad, mid/night 00.00 is the perfect fusion of creativity and exceptional products. The brand represents the synthesis between the world of imagination and the perfection of the products we offer.

Mid/night was created from, and still is, a labor of passion, intention and curiosity. It emerged as an exploration of new understandings of beauty that went beyond purely physical concerns. We acknowledge the myriad forms of beauty and strive to deliver products that are more than just solutions. mid/night products are an experience that focuses as much on the results as its sensations.

In between science and creativity mid/night 00.00 is born in Barcelona to elevate beauty by offering genderneutral optimised routines that deliver more results with fewer steps. Compatible with all hair and skin types, we offer science-baked products, carefully formulated with biotechnological processes and natural active ingredients to deliver visible and long-lasting results.
